FIRST ACT

FTH, Falkirk | A week of fun drama activities for creative little minds.

Children aged 3-7 will discover the magic of theatre with 'Angel Cake Productions'. Using drama skills, singing, dance, movement art and poetry participants can create their own magical worlds, stories and characters based on this year's theme - Scottish fairytales and legends. Family and friends are invited to come along on the last day to see what the young people have been creating throughout the week.

Monday 15th - Friday 19th July

Age 3-4 years 10am-11am £25 | Age 5-7 years 11.15am-12.45pm £30

Please note: parents and carers will not be allowed into the drama room but are welcome to wait in the venue during the session.

READY, STEADY, MC SHOW

FTH, Falkirk

Our sell out summer project takes a Scottish twist this year, and we hope you can join us for 'Ready, Steady, McShow!' Come and celebrate the Year of Natural Scotland with our 2013 Ready Steady McShow. Bring Scottish folk, fairy tales and music to life, from script to performance in one week. Working with a Director, Choreographer and Musical Director, you will create a brand new piece of Musical Theatre and then perform it on the main stage at FTH on the Friday evening. This is a great way to learn new performance skills in a fun and fast paced environment. No previous experience is required.

Monday 15th - Friday 19th July

Ages 8 - 15 years | 10am - 4pm | £70

READY, STEADY, SENIOR SHOWCASE

FTH, Falkirk

Have you always wanted to sing that certain show tune, perform a famous scene or dazzling dance routine? Maybe you see yourself as the next stand up comic or singing sensation? This is your opportunity to shine in our senior section of Ready Steady Show where you bring the ideas, and our professional tutors will work with you to create a performance showcase. This will be performed on the main stage at FTH on the Friday evening following the Ready Steady Show performance.

Monday 15th - Friday 19th July

Ages 16 - 21 years | 1pm - 5pm | £50

COMMONWEALTH IS COMING

Dance week | Falkirk High School | Monday 22nd - Friday 26th July
10am - 3pm daily | Age 12+ | Free of charge

This one week intensive dance programme is an exciting opportunity for young dancers in Falkirk! The overall theme of the week will be the countdown to the Commonwealth Games, Glasgow 2014! Dancers will work with professional artistes to explore the passion and drive of the 2014 athletes, as well as having fun looking at the rich diversity of cultures, music and traditional dance of the "Support a Second Country" nations of The Gambia, Trinidad and Tobago and The Bahamas, as well as the home nation Scotland, and interpreting flavours of selected Commonwealth sport!! Dancers will all come together to stage a performance to showcase the weeks work on Friday 26th July in Falkirk High, 7pm-8pm (details to be given out during the week of dance)

RE:ACTION YOUTH THEATRE - EXPLORE, CREATE, REACT

FTH, Falkirk

At Re:Action Youth Theatre we aim to nurture confidence and creativity in young people, using drama as a tool for exploration and enjoyment. Members will use drama games, improvisations and devising techniques to explore chosen themes in a fun and safe environment. Focusing on the creative and imaginative process ideas will come to life through the development of characters and short scenes.

TERM THREE | Saturdays in FTH, Falkirk | 24th August - 5th October
Juniors (Age 5-8) | 10am-11am | £30
Intermediate (Age 9-12) | 11.15am-12.45pm | £35
Seniors (Age 13-18) | 1pm-3pm | £35

This term the junior group will be learning voice, movement and devising skills around the theme of 'the Circus'. Our Intermediate group will be starting work on creating a devised performance to be staged in Callendar House this December as part of the 'We Love Christmas' programme. The seniors will be looking at character creation using movement, voice and props/costume as stimuli.
